Storytelling

Telling stories is a great way to pass information from generation to generation. Storytelling has always been an important part of our lives and now the art of storytelling will premiere at Chief Plenty Coups State Park for this season.

Come join us in a wonderful evening of storytelling presented at the home of the last traditional chief of the Crow tribe, Chief Plenty Coups. Learn about the rich heritage of the Crow people through accounts as told by local Crow storyteller.

Starting June 19th and during the month of July we will be offering a hour long program of Story telling, recounting fond memories of Chief Plenty Coups as well as other stories.

Every Thursday evening during July the program will begin 7PM, Please come and join us to welcome our esteem presenters here at Chief Plenty Coups State Park. Visitors are encouraged to come spend a special day in Pryor, just 31 mile south of Billings.

Please remember to dress appropriately for the weather, bring a blanket for seating on the ground, or chairs, snacks or drinks. In addition, picnic facilities are nearby for those who would like to use them for more information, please call 252-1289.
